Hanover School Division Appoints New Principal for South Oaks School

Steinbach, MB. May 9, 2016 - The Board of Trustees and administration of Hanover School Division is pleased to announce that Mr. Dale Martens has been appointed to the position of Principal at South Oaks School, effective fall 2016.

Mr. Martens will join South Oaks School after having served this past year as Vice-Principal of Mitchell Elementary School, and previously as Vice-Principal of Southwood School for three years. Mr. Martens brings significant administrative and teaching experience to his new role, having completed 17 years of service within Hanover School Division, including eight years prior teaching experience at South Oaks School.

Randy Dueck, Superintendent-CEO of Hanover School Division commented, "Mr. Martens has proven his ability to lead and inspire within each of the school communities he has served. He is a team player, and a leader in early-years education. We wish him all the best in this new appointment."
