Hanover School Division Appoints Mitchell Middle School Principal

Steinbach, MB. March 22, 2016 – The Board of Trustees and the administration of Hanover School Division is pleased to announce that Mr. Andrew Mead has been appointed to the position of Principal at Mitchell Middle School, effective fall 2016.

Mr. Mead joins the Hanover School Division, after having served the previous 14 years in school administration as a Principal and Vice-Principal within the St. James-Assiniboia School Division in Winnipeg. Mr. Mead most recently held the position of Principal at the George Waters Middle School in Winnipeg.

Randy Dueck, Superintendent-CEO of the Hanover School Division commented, “We are very excited to have Andrew Mead join our Mitchell Middle School administrative team. Andrew has proven his ability to lead, inspire, and build positive working relationships in school communities, and he is passionate about educating children.”
